

The global hackathon: 2022

October 29–30, 2022

Free, global online participation with local chapter hosting.

Brain-age prediction from EEG

Child Mind Institute's Healthy Brain Network (HBN) dataset.

A shared challenge platform

Paris-Saclay's CodaLab; Sylvain Chevallier's MNE / scikit-learn starting kit.

Briefing session in Paris

Sources: TAILOR; CodaLab; starting kit; HBN: Morgan Hough; photo: NTX Content Lab / Firas Safieddine

The global hackathon: 2023

December 2–3, 2023

Second annual global event: free and hybrid.

Eight advertised locations

Paris, Vienna, Zurich, Delhi, Kharagpur, Brasília, Buenos Aires, London.

Four tracks

Hardware; data; design and strategy; new ethics track.

Neuron club team, Vienna
“Bore No More” — second in software

Historically coordinated with École 42 across multiple cities.

Sources: 2023 program; photo: Wrocław University of Science and Technology; coordination: Morgan Hough

Global NeuroHack 2026

April 10–12, 2026

Frontier Tower, San Francisco.
NeuroTechX organizing support.

Three tracks

Blue-Sky Prototyping;
Non-Implantable Speech Decoding;
Maximizing Bit Rate.

From ideas to presentations

Workshops, mentor check-ins, and project demos.

UCSC's NeuroBite team with judges
Blue Sky Track winners

Sources: Global NeuroHack 2026; photo / team identification: UC Santa Cruz / Baskin Engineering, June 8, 2026